FROM: VICTOR STEPHENSON (RPKB52A)
SUBJECT: HOLDEN

Hi All, Anyone researching this HOLDEN line? My earliest HOLDEN is my GGGGrandfather, Simon P. HOLDEN, born abt 1790 in SC. He was married to Nancy _____ born abt 1807 in MS. Their children were: Isaac (1832), Susan (1839), Emelia (1842), Louisa (1843), Daniel (1845), and Emeline (1848). This information is from the 1850/1860 US Census for Jackson County, MS.

There has been some speculation that my Simon P. HOLDEN is the son of Thomas HOLDEN, Sr. the Revolutionary Soldier who came to the Mississippi Territory (Amite County, MS) in the very early 1800's and probably died there after 1809. As yet, I do not have "proof" of this connection, but seems possible.

I would love to correspond with anyone else researching the HOLDEN family.

Three Positions Now Open With State ES Office

Jackson, Miss. — Colley F. Sparkman, Merit System Supervisor, announces today that applications will be received continuously for positions of Junior Stenographer, salary $140.00 to $177.50, Senior Stenographer at $162.50 to $200.00, and Interviewing Clerk, $162.50 to $200, with the Mississippi Unemployment Compensation Commission. The first examination will be held in January in Jackson and in any other of the usual test centers, provided as many as five applicants specify the same center.

Qualified stenographers, with or without experience, interested in opportunities offered through selection on a merit basis are urged to file application by writing or telephoning Colley F. Sparkman, Merit System Supervisor, or by calling at your nearest local employment service office. The principles and advantages of the merit-system appointment are numerous. Equal opportunities are offered to all. Selection is made, not through patronage, but on the basis of the results of an open competitive examination and a personal interview. Opportunity for promotion is offered contingent on meritorious performance of work and successful outcome of higher examinations. Salary advance is assured for employees with satisfactory service ratings. Liberal annual leave with pay and adequate sick leave are provided. Employees may participate in attractive group insurance and hospitalization contracts for themselves and families. And finally, appointment under the merit system means security and tenure of position in a large and well managed state agency.

Avail yourself of the opportunities today by writing for application blanks.
